MINT ERROR NEWS<sup>TM</sup> MAGAZINE

Bringing the latest mint error news to the collector.

Mike Byers, Publisher & Editor, Welcomes You!

Welcome to Mint Error News Magazine, bringing the latest mint error news and information to the collector. This is our seventh year bringing you both an online PDF magazine and the Mine Error News website. It is an exciting time for mint errors. We are proud to feature the world's most valuable mint error on the cover of this issue and are thrilled to announce the release of Mike Byers' new mint error book, World's Greatest Mint Errors.

There are now over 850 articles, features, discoveries, news stories with mint error related info from the United States and around the World. Our website, minterrornews.com, has become the most popular and informative Internet resource for mint errors and is read by thousands of dealers and collectors.

Fred Weinberg is the President of Pacific Rim Numismatics (DBA Fred Weinberg & Co.). He is a highly respected numismatist, with 35 years of full time experience in the rare coin marketplace. His professional associations include the American Numismatic Association (ANA) (38 years), the Professional Numismatist Guild (PNG) (31 years), The Industry Council for Tangible Assets (ICTA) (21 years) and The Numismatic Literary Guild. He is a past President of the Professional Numismatist Guild (1999-2001).

Mint Error News is sponsored by Mike Byers and several other mint error dealers including Allan Levy (alscoins.com) and Fred Weinberg (fredweinberg.com). Additional sponsors are Heritage Auction Galleries, CoinLink, CoinFacts.com, uspatterns.com and errorworldclub.org. We encourage collectors and dealers to submit articles and photos of major mint errors that we may feature on the website.

Off-Center Mint Error Sales

by Al Levy (alscoins.com)

Off Center Market: Lincoln Wheatback Cent

Collectors are aware that most of these dates are nearly impossible to find. They are willing to substitute off centers with broad-strikes or partial collars. It is not unusual to find these error types mixed within a collection. The collector will purchase these dated error types that fill the void in their collection. Some dates take decades before one shows up for sale.

Scan through the back issues of Mint Error News Magazine to look up prices realized for the early Lincoln cents. The closer to the 50% off center with a full date and mintmark, the more money is paid. The color of the coin is a major price factor. Almost each quarter 1956-D and 1957-D are sold on eBay. See how many of these dates sold that were 50% off center, full date and mintmark that were fully red.

Readers of my charts must understand that some of the listings on eBay may have been overlooked. This is only a guide. What if the previous reported sale price sold because the seller listed it as a Buy It Now, or the lot was mis-described? There are numerous factors to consider when reading charts. One major thing to consider is my charts show sales of coins sold exclusively on eBay.

The date collector knows the true market for error types. They do not follow coins sold on eBay exclusively. They frequent shows, subscribe to most auction catalogs and solicit error dealers with their want lists. Many times these collectors accept coins in which the percentage of off center is minor since this is all that is available.

Here are records of recent sales of off-center mint errors on eBay from July 1, 2009 to September 30, 2009.

1. All lots had buyers. If the coins actually changed hands is unknown.
2. A picture accompanied each lot or it was not recognized.
3. Mislabeled items were ignored.
4. Some lots may have changed hands more than once.
5. "D" next to the date symbolizes that the coin had damage or was scratched.
6. "C" next to the date symbolizes that the coin was cleaned.
7. "B" next to the date symbolizes that the coin had damage and was cleaned.
8. If the date or mint mark was missing or partially visible, parentheses were used.
9. Postage/handling/insurance fees were ignored.
10. Major auctions were not listed.

Double Denomination & Off-Metal Mint Error Sales

by Al Levy (alscoins.com)

One of the most popular error types are double denominations. All have eye appeal. The higher end common dates graded over MS66 have dropped some in price. However, the sellers are still not willing to lower their ask prices. The collector must realize that some dates and mintmarks there are less than a handful known. Eye appeal will generate a higher price paid than a grade. When a new seller lists this error type and does not utilize quality pictures or descriptions, they sell for a fraction of their real value. My charts reflect this decrease. This does not mean prices dropped. It means the buyer is able to turn a quick profit if desired by offering the same piece at shows. Keep in mind that eBay sales are a small fraction of the true market. Dates, mintmarks, grading services all make a difference in value. Read over my notes to help you decipher the real market.

Here are records of recent sales of off-center mint errors on eBay from July 1, 2009 to September 30, 2009.

1. All lots had buyers. If the coins actually changed hands is unknown.
2. A picture accompanied each lot or it was not recognized.
3. Mislabelled items were ignored.
4. Some lots may have changed hands more than once.
5. "D" next to the date symbolizes that the coin had damage or was scratched.
6. "C" next to the date symbolizes that the coin was cleaned.
7. "B" next to the date symbolizes that the coin had damage and was cleaned.
8. If the date or mint mark was missing or partially visible, parentheses were used.
9. Postage/handling/insurance fees were ignored.
10. Major auctions were not listed.

Double Denomination & Off-Metal Error Sales

There are date collectors for off metals. Completing this may not be possible. For the collector that has been looking for specific dates to come on the market may have been waiting for decades. So, it is not unusual to see a MS64 example sell for the same price as an AU55. If you do not stretch for this coin, it may not show up on the market for another ten years.

Off metals have a very high eye appeal. Cents struck on dime planchets have always piqued collectors interests. Same with nickels or quarters struck on cent planchets. Check out the price variance when brown examples sell. Then compare the price to a red color sold in a lesser grade.

Multiple errors on off metals are highly desirable. There may only be one example of an off metal struck off center. Or, double struck plus off metal.

valued error types. Some collectors hope to determine that these errors are actually struck on a foreign blank.

Clad Layer Split-Off Mint Error Sales

by Al Levy (alscoins.com)

“Clad layers off” are very popular due to the statehood quarter issues. There are a few collectors trying to complete a type set of obverse and reverse. This inflates the market on a temporary basis. Once the hole in their collection is filled, additional examples sell for way less. (Exception to this rule: The collector that wait for more examples of these to appear on the market immediately so they can buy them for way less. The coins do not surface for years. Prices will soar as happened this quarter.)

If the coin shows a red copper color, it will bring a very high price compared to a brown.

Buyers on eBay must be careful when trying to purchase these by scan only. Some pictures have been doctored and the sellers do not grade or describe these coins. Therefore, the information listed below may not be 100% accurate. The buyers must ask questions prior to bidding. Such as: What is the weight? Is the color natural?

Here are records of recent sales on eBay from July 1, 2009 to September 30, 2009.

Buffalo Nickel “Speared Bison” & Wisconsin Quarter “Extra Leaves”

by Al Levy (alscoins.com)

An important observation about 5c “Speared Bisons” and the 25c Wisconsin extra leaf errors sold on eBay. There is little to no demand for the “Bison” errors from collectors or dealers at major conventions. The demand for these on eBay are way down in price. There were many auctions listed but failed to attract any bidders.

The Wisconsin leaf errors have dropped in price substantially. Unlike the “Speared Bisons”, there are collectors and dealers asking for these varieties at conventions. Check out the new prices realized below, then compare them to an older price guide.

Last quarter I reported that the low and high leaf were selling around the same price level. This quarter, prices have widened. Still, hundreds of these listed remain unsold.

Here are records of recent sales on eBay from July 1, 2009 to September 30, 2009.

Waffled Coin Sales

by Al Levy (alscoins.com)

These are a very interesting type. The grading services will body bag coins damaged or cleaned. However, if the Mint waffles them, they show up holdered an even graded.

Now that more “bins” have been bypassing the smelters pot, prices have really been dropping. There are collectors trying to put together complete sets of the statehood quarters.

Rumor has it, three bins full of “Red Tanks Marked - Sweeps” became available on the market. One reason there are so many of the “webbings” available.

Presidential Dollar Mint Error Sales

by Al Levy (alscoins.com)

Missing Edge Lettering: The George Washington dollars have stabilize at the current prices listed below. John Adams dollars have remained the same as last report. Only one example of the Monroe dollar sold this past quarter. The double edge lettering John Adams dollars are changing hands at last quarters' prices. PCGS and NGC prices dropped this quarter. Raw examples remain the same. The newest missing edge lettering errors to start showing up on eBay are the (SMS) satin finish dollars.

These are the special mint sets that are suppose to be scrutinized by the mint employees at each process. Not many are being found so are relative scare at this time. A John Q. Adams did sell cheap.

Partial edge lettering and weak edge lettering errors have all gone down in price. This includes the ones found in (SMS) special mint sets.

Here are records of recent sales on eBay from July 1, 2009 to September 30, 2009.

PCGS Certifies Type 2 $1 Gold Piece Full Brockage Reverse

by Mike Byers

This unbelievable U.S. Gold Brockage recently surfaced at the 2009 ANA held in Los Angeles. It was authenticated and certified by PCGS years ago, but had not been offered for sale until the convention. The dealer who sold it had it in his personal collection for over 20 years and never displayed it at coin shows. It traded hands twice, for $90,000 and then $100,000.

To date, this is only the second known full brockage on a U.S. gold coin to be authenticated and graded by a major third party grading service. The other known full brockage is also on a $1 gold piece and was authenticated and certified by NGC. It is an 1874 type 3 $1 gold piece.

Having any major gold error on a Type 2 $1 gold piece is incredible since they were struck for only 3 years. Even a regular Type 2 $1 gold piece which is circulated can easily bring $1,000.

Some collectors will refer to the Type 2 $1 as an obverse brockage since the brockage is the incuse design of the obverse. But this is not correct. It is referred to as a reverse brockage since the brockage is on the reverse.

The type 3 $1 referred to in this article is an obverse brockage of the reverse design. Once again, some collectors will refer to it as a reverse brockage since the brockage is of the reverse design.

Regardless of how dealers and collectors describe these two gold brockages, they are among the rarest and most coveted of all U.S. major mint errors.

Off-Metal Standing Liberty Quarters

On cent planchet 1917 2 reported by Taxay, Lighterman undated example stolen in 2001 and recovered in 2009 has same die breaks as next !!

Note: 1928 P, D or S ex Heritage 1/04 as raw AU53, Heritage
6/04 as SEGS63 (not sold in either sale) – reverse shows die break not known on any silver example so probably counterfeit. Cline also owns the 50% off-center on struck cent which appears in Taxay. It did not look real to me.
Fred Weinberg says it is a fake.

On nickel planchet 1) 1918-S struck 25% off-center !!

On dime planchet, 1920 (2) and 1930 reported by Taxay

On foreign (Peruvian) copper-nickel planchet – 1920,

How To Tell A Premium Off-Metal Mint Error

by Rich Schemmer (richerrors.com)

What can determine an average off-metal error to a premium error? Well, of course eye appeal, original color, grade and if the coin is full RED, play important parts to factoring the correct price for an off-metal error. You will pay more for a better looking example.

What about the date? Does a partial date make any difference? It certainly does if you collect by date. Would you rather have a coin with a hard to make out partial date, half of a date, or a full date with a full rim?

As you can see from the highlighted example, there is greater eye-appeal for a full dated example with a separated rim. There is no question what the date is or hardly the need for a loop. Off-metals like that are rare and certainly deserve large premiums. They certainly will be quicker to sell than any of form of partial dated specimens. Always look for quality, original, full dated examples & you will never go wrong when it comes time to sell. Do expect to pay more to obtain them. This type of premium off-metal with full dates and full rims will occur on all off-metals, for example a Quarter on a Cent. The larger the denomination, the scarcer they become. This is also possible on double denomination errors.

Having Residual Concerns About Residue?

By NGC (ngccoin.com)

A closer look at “residue” on the surface of coins including why this can lead a coin to be rejected for certification and how professional conservation can play a role in bringing these coins back to life.

Having Residual Concerns About Residue? If so, you’re not alone. This subject prompts a great many questions to NGC from its customers. Perhaps the most common is: What does NGC mean by “Residue” when it returns a coin to the customer ungraded? Receiving one’s coin back in the dreaded “body bag,” a flip to which is affixed a sticker revealing the cause for a “No Grade” determination, is mystifying to many customers. More puzzling still is that some coins displaying a naturally occurring film may be deemed gradeable by the experts at NGC. What are the differences between natural, acceptable residue and unnatural or harmful residue which prompts a No Grade judgment from NGC?

The catch-all term “Residue” as used by NGC refers to any one of numerous substances that may build up on a coin. The truth is that even the professional graders at NGC may not know the exact nature of a fine haze that covers a vintage coin, but the important point is that they’re able to distinguish harmless, natural residue from that which is potentially destructive or was applied intentionally to make a coin appear better than it is.

All the many ways that coin “doctors” attempt to conceal problems and the substances they use are subjects for another article. What’s important to know is that, to the trained eye, these problems remain evident underneath the substance covering them. Such coins are among those often sent back to the submitter with a No Grade determination of Residue. In this way, NGC will not reward coin doctors for their efforts, no matter how skillful they may be.

Also falling into the No Grade—Residue category are pieces having some film which may have developed naturally but which poses a risk of further deterioration. Most such instances are the result of polyvinyl chloride (PVC) forming over a coin’s surfaces from prolonged storage in soft, vinyl flips. Frequently, in such cases, rather than “Residue,” these coins’ accompanying No Grade tags will read specifically, “PVC.” When the nature of the contaminant is not known, the generic term Residue appears.

This Peace dollar has a layer of PVC residue that is easily observed. Note the “off” color of light green haze on the coin’s surface.

Having Residual Concerns About Residue?

Some of the naturally occurring, acceptable residue seen on old coins is simply the result of long-term storage in canvas mint bags, paper bank wrappers, coin albums or other organic media. These materials emit vapors as they react with moisture and the atmosphere. Though the process is very slow, over a period of years some of this vaporized material will settle onto coins or even react with their surfaces. The metals, too, react with moisture and the atmosphere to form toning, which may be either distracting or quite beautiful, depending on its pattern, coloration and depth.

The professional graders at NGC are familiar with all of these circumstances and the resulting appearance of naturally hazed or toned coins. Such considerations are paramount when determining whether or not a coin may be graded. Since each and every NGC-certified coin is backed by NGC's solid grade guarantee, the company will not grade and encapsulate coins displaying contaminants which may, over time, lessen the coin's grade. Therefore, any coin which is NGC certified and encapsulated has been determined to be safe from deterioration under normal storage conditions, even if it may exhibit some film on its surfaces.

Many coins which do receive a No Grade determination of Residue are not necessarily hopeless. Residue can often be successfully removed from these coins by professional conservation. Numismatic Conservation Services, LLC (NCS) employs professional conservators specializing in numismatic items. These individuals have both the knowledge and equipment to skillfully conserve coins which are suffering from many harmful residues. Coins which have been body-bagged by NGC for Residue may be submitted to NCS for evaluation; NGC even offers a small rebate if the No Grade tag is included. The NCS submission form includes options for grading following the conservation process, and this has resulted in many a happy ending for previously unattractive or ungradeable coins.

In some instances, a coin graded and encapsulated by NGC will have a different kind of note affixed to the capsule indicating that the experts at NGC have determined it to be a good candidate for conservation. What this means is that, while clearly gradeable as is, the coin's appearance may be improved through the removal of light residue or unattractive toning. This doesn't imply that the grade will necessarily be raised after conservation, but the certain result will be a more desirable coin that brings greater pleasure to the owner and will be easier to sell when that time comes.

NCS has an enviable track record in conserving and stabilizing many important coins once considered at risk of further deterioration. A notable recent example is the famous Mickley-Queller specimen of the legendary 1804 silver dollar. For decades this coin was considered to be a lightly circulated piece, due to an unappealing film which impaired its proof surfaces. Submitted to NCS for professional conservation prior to its sale as part of the magnificent Queller Family Collection of silver dollars, NCS intervention revealed this coin to be a delightful, glossy proof which NGC was able to confidently grade PF-62. Furthermore, this coin has been rescued from any further diminishing of its beauty by stabilizing its surfaces through removal of the contaminant film.

So successful has NCS been at restoring and preserving the attractiveness of rare coins that it was selected by the Smithsonian Institution to conserve the premier rarities of the National Numismatic Collection in Washington, DC. These include such magnificent and unique specimens as the 1849 pattern double eagle in gold and the two varieties of the 1877 half union gold fifty-dollar pieces. Formerly at risk of mishandling and atmospheric exposure due to being stored simply in cabinet drawers, these irreplaceable examples of our nation's numismatic heritage have since been encapsulated by NGC so that they may be safely studied by scholars and admired by coin enthusiasts from around the world. Indeed, all of the Smithsonian's most important American numismatic rarities are now safely stored within NGC capsules.

Yes, residue can be a problem, or it can be a distinctive badge of antiquity. Knowing the difference sets NGC and NCS apart. Knowing when to ignore residue, when to red flag it and when to remove it skillfully through professional conservation is all part of the NGC and NCS ongoing commitment to numismatics.

PNG Members Recover Coins From 2001 Theft

Submitted by Fred Weinberg (PNG Member)

A dozen of the 44 U.S. error coins stolen from an Indiana motel room in 2001 have been recovered and returned to their delighted owner through the joint efforts of three Professional Numismatists Guild members. At the time of the theft eight years ago these coins were to be the foundation of a planned book about off-metal errors.

The recovered coins belong to collector and researcher Mark Lighterman of Sanford, Florida. They include what is believed to be the only known Walking Liberty half dollar struck on a planchet intended for five-cent pieces; one of three known Standing Liberty quarter dollars struck on a one-cent planchet; a unique 1858 Flying Eagle cent on a silver half-dime planchet; and a double denomination Indian cent on a previously-struck Barber dime. There is also a transitional error 1944-dated Washington quarter on a zinc planchet intended for 1943 cents.

The coins were stolen along with a camera, laptop computer and a collection of over 1,000 casino gaming chips from Lighterman's motel room in Southport, Indiana when he was traveling to the Central States Numismatic Society convention in Indianapolis in April 2001.

The recovery was made by PNG member Paul Nugget of Spectrum East in East Meadow, New York;

PNG associate member Andrew Glassman, President of Spectrum Numismatics International in Irvine, California; and PNG Board Member and former PNG President Fred Weinberg of Fred Weinberg, Inc. in Encino, California.

Ironically, Lighterman was told by Weinberg about the unexpected recovery just a few hours after he went to the bank to look at his remaining off-metal error coins for the first time since the theft.

“I was in total shock because I had not touched the wrong planchet collection in eight years, and that same day I got the phone call that a dozen of the coins had been recovered. After all these years I thought they were in a river somewhere because nothing had ever surfaced from the theft except for my Nikon camera that showed up in a pawn shop in Ohio and some obsolete casino chips someone tried to cash in at a Florida casino,” said Lighterman.

“Now they’re going back into my collection. These are the keys to the collection and the book I’m working on with Dave Camire about wrong planchet errors.”

The recovery began when Nugget was contacted in late-August by a Georgia client who wanted to sell a large group of coins and paper money.

“The group included error coins that my client purchased in an estate sale about five years ago. With his permission I wanted to show them to several error coin experts, and I contacted Fred first,” Nugget explained.

“As I opened the package sent by Paul I immediately knew these were unusual and rare error coins, but there was no writing or other notations on the coins’ holders to indicate any pedigree or source,” said Weinberg.

“When I began researching them I realized that 12 of the 13 error coins submitted by Paul’s client matched the descriptions of coins taken in the 2001 theft. It’s mind boggling how these showed up after all those years. It’s very gratifying, too, because once we all realized these were stolen there was never a moment’s hesitation by Paul’s client or anyone else about immediately getting them back to Mark.”

The recovered stolen coins are:

No date, Type II design Standing Liberty quarter on a cent planchet

No date Shield nickel on a nickel three-cent planchet

No date Walking Liberty half dollar on a five-cent planchet

1865 two-cent on cent planchet

1858 half-dime on silver three-cent planchet

1858 uniface Flying Eagle cent on silver half-dime planchet

1866 Shield nickel on cent planchet

1899 Indian cent struck over an 1899 Barber dime

1908 Indian cent on silver dime planchet

1926 Lincoln cent on silver dime planchet

1936 Buffalo nickel on silver dime planchet

1944-S Washington quarter on a 1943 type zinc cent planchet, one of only two known.

Lighterman says he never filed an insurance claim or sought a tax write-off for the 2001 theft.

“The only insurance I could have claimed the loss against was my homeowner’s insurance. But at the time, after Hurricane Andrew, homeowner’s insurance was almost impossible to obtain in South Florida where I was living at the time. So, after discussing it with my accountant and others, I didn’t file a claim because I didn’t want to take a chance on my insurance policy being canceled and then being unable to get another company to insure my property,” explained Lighterman.

“I am so happy get these 12 coins back after all this time, and I thank Paul Nugget and his client, and Fred Weinberg and Andrew Glassman for their help and support.”

CONECA

The Combined Organizations of Numismatic Error Collectors of America

CONECA is a national numismatic organization devoted to the education of error and variety coin collectors. CONECA focuses on many error and variety specialties, including doubled dies, Repunched mintmarks, multiple errors, clips, double strikes, off-metals and off-centers -- just to name a few. It publishes an educational magazine, The Errorscope, which is printed and mailed to members bimonthly. CONECA offers a lending library, examination, listing and attribution services; it holds annual meetings at major conventions (referred to as Errorama) around the country, and offers auction services to its members. Please visit conecaonline.org and enjoy!

CONECA Variety Attribution Services

CONECA offers two attribution services. One service enables members and non-members to send their coins directly to an authorized CONECA attributer. The other service is offered through the numismatic grading firm of ICG and enables CONECA members and non-members to have their coins attributed by a CONECA attributer and then graded and slabbed by ICG.

CONECA Error Examination Services

CONECA offers two examination services. One service enables members and non-members to send coins to an authorized CONECA examiner who will return an opinion of each coin's error classification. The other service is offered through the numismatic grading firm of ICG and enables CONECA members and non-members to have their coins examined by a CONECA examiner and then graded and slabbed by ICG.

Presidential Dollar Mint Errors

The Missing Edge Lettering discovery on the George Washington Presidential Dollar was the biggest news story of 2007. Mint Error News has published a special edition of the magazine showcasing the Washington Dollar Missing Edge Lettering mint errors which can be viewed on minterrornews.com. Presidential Dollars featuring John Adams, the second president, were also discovered with the Missing Edge Lettering.

The numbers of Missing Edge Lettering Presidential Dollars on subsequent presidents has been greatly reduced due to new procedures at the U.S. Mint. An example would be President Monroe Dollars that are missing the edge lettering. The number discovered so far is approximately 20.

Other major mint errors in the Presidential Dollar series are very scarce. Only two or three off-centers have been reported and only a handful of double struck coins have surfaced. Several Presidential Dollars have been discovered missing either an obverse or reverse clad layer. A few of these Missing Clad Layers are also missing the Edge Lettering. To date, three Proof Presidential Dollars have been certified by NGC that were stuck on elliptical planchets. PCGS has certified a few with clips and a few that are broadstruck. Some of the major mint errors on Presidential Dollars are featured here.

Also featured in this article is an up-to-date chart showing the number of Presidential Dollars Missing Edge Lettering that are known or estimated.

Mint Error News Price Guide

- Entire Price Guide Updated 12/1/09 -

This price guide is brought to you by Mint Error News. It has been compiled by many of the top major mint error dealers.

This price guide is a guide. Prices fluctuate due to the date, grade, eye appeal and how dramatic the striking error is. Rarity is also a factor. The price is sometimes based on the rarity and grade of the type of coin as well as how rare the error is. The price can also vary depending on whether two collectors are bidding for the same rare major mint error. When purchasing a mint error, it is important to use multiple resources to determine value, as there are many mint errors that do not fit into one category.

Proof Errors

Proof coins are struck by technicians who hand feed the blanks into special presses. They are produced, examined, and packaged using extreme quality control. It is very unusual to find major proof errors. A few broadstrikes, off-centers, double strikes in collars and off-metals have been known to be found in sealed proof sets. Proof errors are aggressively sought after by many error collectors.

A very small group of Proof errors recently came from a collection that was auctioned by the State of California. The U.S. Secret Service inspected and released this collection to the State of California determining that it was legal to own. The State of California then auctioned the collection and it has been dispersed since the sale.

Broadstrikes

A broadstruck error occurs when a coin is struck without the collar to form the rim and edge that is part of the shape of the coin. Coins can be broadstruck on either type one or type two planchets. When a coin is broadstruck the blank being fed into the collar will spread and distort outward as it is being struck because the collar isn't in the correct position to retain it.

Partial Collars

Partial collar strikes occur when there is a malfunction of the striking press. This causes the collar to be in an incorrect position. The lower die (usually the reverse die) is recessed in the collar. This allows the coin which is going to be struck to have a formed rim. After a coin is struck the lower die raises upwards, pushing the struck coin out of the collar and ejecting it. If a blank entering the collar is not properly seated, it will only have partial reeding as it is struck. The edge of this coin will have a partial reeding and a partial blank surface area. Recently, the Mint has installed new machinery where either die can be installed in either position.

Uniface Strikes

Uniface coins occur when there have been two blank planchets in the press at the same time. The other blank will obstruct the die on either the obverse or reverse side, which will prevent it from having that design on the coin. There are many different variations involving uniface errors. In addition to having a 100% blank obverse or reverse, a coin can be struck off-center, with a blank planchet in the collar which will obstruct one side of the off-center. There are also mated pairs which have a combination of multiple errors which can include a side which is uniface. Finally, there are uniface strikes due to a die cap which adhered to the die, forming itself in the shape of a die and striking blank planchets.

Bonded Coins

Bonded coins occur when the feeder system, which supplies blank planchets to the coin press, malfunctions and jams. When this occurs, a struck coin is not properly ejected and another planchet is fed into the collar and is struck. This struck coin will land on top of the previously unejected strike. These coins will then crush and bond together. This may occur many times as more coins bond.

Coins Struck on Feeder Finger Tips

After a recent tour of the U.S. Mint in Philadelphia, it was discovered that the minting process had changed to some degree. One of the changes was that “feeder fingers” were used during the striking of all denominations of U.S. coins. Prior to this tour, U.S. coins that were struck on feeder finger tips were authenticated and described as being struck on aluminum scrap. Coins from all modern denominations have been discovered that were struck on the tips of these feeder fingers.

Struck Fragments

The blanking press takes the coils of metal strips and punches blanks out of it, ejecting the webbing at the other end. The webbing is cut into small scrap pieces to be melted and recycled. Occasionally a scrap piece will be mixed with the blank planchets and struck by the dies. Struck fragments are rare in the larger denominations. These can be uniface or die struck both sides and are very rare on type coins.

Mated Pairs

Mated pairs involve two individual coins with different errors that were struck together at the same time. Mated pair error combinations can be found in most error types and come in many shapes and sizes. Mated pairs can be overlapped when one of the coins is struck off-center on top of another coin. Another type involves a brockage where a struck coin was perfectly centered on a blank and restruck. Some mated pairs involve a die cap where the cap and brockage coin are discovered together, but this is a scarce find.

The rarest mated pair type involves two die caps (obverse and reverse) where both dies were capped at the same time and both die caps are mated. This last type is extremely rare and there are only a few known examples of mated pairs involving an obverse die cap and reverse die cap. There are several of these mated pairs known on Kennedy Halves including two dated 1976, which is the Bicentennial year. One of the most spectacular mated pairs involve two Barber Dimes, an obverse die cap mated to a reverse die cap and are unique.

Mated pairs can also involve an off-metal where a smaller blank planchet or smaller struck coin was struck on top of a larger coin. This type is extremely rare. The most spectacular pair known is a double struck Franklin Half which was mated to a Lincoln Cent. The Lincoln Cent blank was on top of the obverse of the struck Franklin Half. This pair was then struck together. It is unique.

Transitional Errors

A transitional error occurs when a coin is struck on a planchet from a previous year with different metal composition. The most famous transitional is a 1943 copper cent struck on a 1942 copper blank. 1943 cents were struck in steel because of the copper shortage during World War II. Other famous transitionals include 1965 coinage struck in silver instead of clad.

There are also transitionals struck on blanks for the next year. An example is 1964 coinage in clad instead of silver. Most recently, transitionals were discovered involving the SBA and Sacagawea Dollars of 1999 and 2000. There are eight known 1999 SBA Dollars struck on the brass planchet for the 2000 Sacagawea Dollar, and four known 2000 Sacagawea Dollars struck on a clad planchet for the 1999 SBA Dollar.

U.S. Gold Errors

Major mint errors on U.S. Gold coins are the most prized category of all mint errors. Gold errors are very rare and a few have traded in the $75,000 to $100,000 range. Even a broadstruck U.S. Gold coin can easily sell for $15,000 to $30,000 compared to a broadstruck Cent, Nickel, Dime or Quarter which all sell for well under $10. Many serious collectors of Gold Errors have to wait patiently for months and sometimes even years to acquire that one special piece for their collection.

The prices listed here are for common dates in AU-Unc. Better dates and errors that are in gem condition are worth considerably more.

Indents

An indent error occurs when two blanks are fed inadvertently into the same collar, with one blank partly overlaying on top of the other. When the hammer die strikes this combination, the upper blank will be forced into the lower blank, creating a depression which is shaped similar to the upper blank. A scarce type of indent occurs when a blank intended for one denomination lands on top of a blank from a different denomination.

Die Caps

Die caps are caused when a struck coin sticks to the upper hammer die. Once the coin is struck to the die face, the reverse of the struck coin becomes the new die face. When the next blank is fed into the collar and the strike occurs, the reverse design of the adhered struck coin impresses itself into the new blank. This struck coin is a brockage strike. The coin that adhered to the upper die is known as a die cap. This process repeats itself as more coins are struck by the cap. The greater the number of strikes, the higher the cap metal will be pushed around the upper die shaft. Eventually, the cap brakes away from the die in the shape of a thimble.

Die Adjustment Strikes

Die adjustment strikes are also known as die trials. This error occurs when a coin is struck from the press with very little pressure. When the press is being set up and adjusted, extremely weak strikes occur as the strike pressure reaches its optimum level. These die trials are destroyed after being struck and are rarely found in circulation.

Double Denominations

One of the most expensive, popular, and desired types of errors are the double denominations. This error happens when a coin is struck on a previously struck coin of a smaller denomination. Examples are a cent on a struck dime, and a nickel on a struck cent. The most dramatic are those with considerable design visible from the original strike. There are a few known double denominations with different dates.

Brockages

A brockage error can only occur when there are two coins involved. One of the coins involved will always be a struck coin which has not ejected properly. That struck coin will find its way back between the dies and will be struck next to a blank planchet which was fed into the collar. The image of that first struck coin will be impressed into that side of the blank planchet. The result will be a second coin which has images of the first coin impressed into it. Those images will be pressed into the coin and the image will be in reverse. This incuse sunken image is known as a brockage.

Double & Multiple Strikes

When a blank planchet is struck by the dies, the normal procedure is for the feeders to eject the struck coin out of the collar and into a chute. If there is a malfunction and the struck coin isn't ejected, it may receive a second or third strike by the dies. A multiple struck coin can happen in many ways and have many combinations of errors.

(Since each double and multiple strike can vary from being 10% off-center to 90% off-center, the prices listed below can be substantially more based on the percent off-center and dramatic overall look.)

Off-Center Strikes

Off-center coins are one of the most common and best known types of errors. This happens when a blank which is supposed to be fed into the press, lands in the collar improperly. When this occurs only part of the blank is between the upper and lower dies. When the dies strike the blank, only that part will be struck with a design.

Off-Metals

Off-metal and wrong planchet errors occur when a correctly made blank from one denomination is accidentally fed into a press for another denomination. Examples are a nickel struck on a cent planchet and a cent struck on a dime planchet. The coin struck on an incorrect blank will weigh exactly what the denomination of that blank would have been. An even more dramatic wrong planchet error is a coin struck on a previously struck coin of a different metal.

Counterbrockages

A counterbrockage error involves a cap die and a previously struck coin. When a cap die strikes a previously struck coin, the obverse design from that struck coin will be impressed into the cap. The result will be a design where the cap face will be an incuse brockage. When a new blank is struck by this cap die with an incuse brockage image, the obverse will have a raised and spread image from that incuse design of the cap. This brockage impression is known as a counterbrockage.

Fold-Over Strikes

A fold-over coin is one of the most dramatic types of errors. It occurs when the blank is standing vertically between the dies. During the strike, the force is so great that it bends and folds the blank. These fold-overs can be on-center or off-center, and come in many different shapes. There are a few fold-overs with multiple errors, either with an additional strike or fold-over. Denominations above quarters are very scarce.

Martha Washington Test Pieces

There is one set of a Dime, Quarter and Half struck by Martha Washington dies that are permanently housed in the Smithsonian Institute, embedded in blocks of lucite. According to United States Pattern and Related Issues, by Andrew W. Pollock III, “the only trial pieces purported to have survived metallurgical testing in 1965 were the Dime, Quarter Dollar, and Half Dollar equivalent strikes in copper-nickel clad over copper.”

Mike Byers’ discovery of the Martha Washington Test Piece on a copper-zinc Cent planchet struck 10% off-center with a uniface reverse was a front page Coin World article on August 7th, 2000.

Missing Edge Lettering

A mint error has recently been discovered on the new Presidential Dollars. These coins inadvertently left the United States Mint without edge-lettering on them. The inscriptions 'In God We Trust,' 'E Pluribus Unum,' as well as the mint mark and year are absent from these errors.

(Prices as of September 20, 2008 and are for certified pieces by PCGS and NGC)

	Struck on U.S. Clad 25¢ planchet. Struck at the San Francisco Mint. Very rare.
2.	1978-S Roosevelt Dime PCGS PROOF-69	$4200.00
	Unique-Struck on Philippine 10 Sentimos plan. WT: 2 grams-70% CU, 18% ZI, & 12% NI. I purchased this coin directly from the party who removed it from a U.S. 1978 Proof Set. The coin is frosted obv/rev, & is the only known PROOF example of this off-metal coin.
3.	1979 Canada cent PCGS MS-64	$2200.00
	Deep Die Cap struck on 5.6 gm. Copper-Nickel plan (Tag reads). A Dramatic Off-Metal Deep Die Cap error on an unidentifiable world coin planchet.
4.	1983 Israel Medal NGC MS-67	$1700.00
	On Two Bonded Canadian 50¢ (Tag Reads). Jerusalem of Gold Medal (Tag Reads). Large, Deep and Unique in new NGC thick holder with NGC photo certificate.
5.	2005 Chile 100 Peso PCGS MS-64	$185.00
	Struck on Uruguay $2 Peso Brass 7.4 gm. planchet(Tag Reads). Comes with normal Chile 100 Peso Bi-Metallic coin. This is a Bi-Metallic coin struck on a foreign, or Uruguay $2 Peso.
6.	2005 Malaysia 1 Sen PCGS MS-65	$600.00
	Struck on large 10 Sen plan (TR). Done at Mint. If this was on a U.S. coin, the value would be $25,000+ (Buy both 2005 Malaysia 1 Sen & 10 Sen coins @ $1,000)
7.	2005 Malaysia 10 Sen PCGS MS-64	$600.00
	Struck on large 20 Sen plan (TR). Done at Mint. If this was on a U.S. coin, the value would be $25,000+ (Buy both 2005 Malaysia 1 Sen & 10 Sen coins @ $1,000)
8.	2006 Chile 50 Pesos PCGS MS-65	$2250.00
	Struck 20% Off-center on 1985 Mexico 5 Peso coin. UNIQUE! This 24 year-old 1985 Mexico 5 Pesos coin was struck in 2006 20% off-center with Chile 50 Pesos dies. Both dates (1985 and 2006) show. Probably a helped coin, but still unique & dramatic. Comes with normal Chile 50 Pesos coin for comparison.
9.	2007 Malaysia 1 Sen PCGS MS-64	$235.00
	Double Struck Deep Obverse Die Cap + Full Brockage Reverse. Deep Dramatic, and Pretty. Comes w/normal 1 Sen coin.
10.	2008 Chile 100 Peso PCGS MS-64	$250.00
	Struck on 500 Peso Bi-Metallic Core only. Rare Double Error.

COINLINK™

Your Source for Daily Numismatic News and Resources on the Web

CoinLink operates on one simple principle...

To provide the numismatic community with access to the “best” numismatic information, news and resources on-line.

CoinLink® was started in 1995 by Anteater Design Group Inc., and is headquartered in Longwood, Florida ( just northeast of Orlando).

For over 12 years we have been proud to operate the most popular and comprehensive numismatic directory on the web, referring collectors to thousands of numismatic sites, and providing unbiased access to resources that are informative and relevant to collectors and dealers alike.

The reason for our success has been a willingness to listen to our users suggestions and provide innovative solutions to aggregating the diverse and ever changing sources of numismatic information available.

CoinLink does not buy or sell coins. We have NO commercial or financial interest in any company that does. We do NOT compete against our advertisers.

Rather, our goal is to provide a platform from which dealers and collectors can find each other and stay informed about what is happening within the marketplace and within the hobby.

As we move into our 12th year of operations, we want to thank all of the users, supporters and sponsors who have made CoinLink what it is today, and who continue to shape the direction in which CoinLink will grow in the future.

Coin Auctions Help

U.S. Coin Information - Guides - News - Forum

Coinauctionshelp.com is not a coin auctions website, but help for United States coin collectors who do buy coins at online auctions, but we are still much more than that. Besides being the fastest growing coin site on the web, we offer coin guides, facts, news, pictures, price guides, third party grading information, coin site links, and targeted ebay coin auctions for every major U.S. Coin series minted. If you can't find the coin or information you need, send us an email and we will send it to you and add it to our site. Let us do the research for you!

Targeted Coin Links:

First, let's talk about our targeted ebay coin auctions. Simply put, we do the ebay coin auction search for you. We spent months building links at ebay for every U.S. Coin series, and often for each date in the series. We did our best to eliminate irrelevant coin auctions so the user can click a link and go directly to only the coin type or date they wish to buy.

Although, our searches are not perfect because some coins are so rare that they are not listed on ebay often, and there are many sellers on ebay that use keyword spamming in their ebay auctions. However, most of our searches have eliminated this problem, so you don't have to spend hours trying to find the exact coin you need for your collection.

Plus, the sales generated from these links allow us to continue providing all the free information on this website.

If a certain date is not listed on ebay after you click a link, it means one is not listed at the present, but might be in the near future. So always check back often so you don't miss out on an opportunity for that rare and valuable coin!

Facts And Pictures:

We offer a page for every U.S. Coin series. A list of the page links can be found by clicking the Coin Facts tab on the navigation bar. Our coin facts pages offer the collector large pictures with important features pointed out so the mint mark, designer initials, denomination, and other design elements to allow for proper identification of coin type and varieties of that coin series. Also, each page contains important facts about the coin type, a list of rare and valuable dates for "cherry pickers", a price guide and the targetable links we mentioned earlier.

We add new information to these pages often, and at site visitors request. So check back to see what's new or ask to be added to our email list and receive email updates and contained in our Newsletter.

Coin News And Guides:

Although, we offer the latest U.S. coin news on our homepage, we don't limit the reporting to just what everyone else reports, but we find news that other site ignore or don't know about yet. Often, we will have a news articles posted on our site before the latest issue of Coin World comes out!

We offer news for latest auction sales, mint error discoveries, third party grading services, and offer guides on featured coin types, mint errors, fake coins, cleaning and identifying cleaned coins, grading coins, and many more guides to help the collector be better informed. Basically we report on the major sales and finds, and on the obscure news which allows us to offer our readers news and guides they can't find anywhere else.

In conclusion, this is about us in the brief, but in no way describes what we do completely as we our always updating and adding to coinauctionshelp.com to make the coin collector's hobby more informative, exciting and safe. We gladly answer questions and take suggestions because only you, the visitor, know what makes a good coin site, a great coin site.

Dealer in Major Mint Error Coins & Currency

fredweinberg.com

BUYING MAJOR ERROR COINS & CURRENCY

If you have a single major mint error coin, either a recent issue or an older type coin, or 1,000 Off-Center Cents, please contact us. We stock over 60,000 Major Mint Error Coins and constantly need to purchase Major Error Coins for our clientele (please note that we do not deal in or buy Die Varieties, Damaged Coins, Doubled Dies, Filled Dies, or Die Cracks).

We do buy Major Mint Errors - such as Off-Center, Off-Metals, Double Strikes, Clad Layers missing, Die Caps, Double Denomination, etc.

Because of the many differences in each Error Coin we request that you send scans of your coin(s) to us for our examination and firm offer.
